

Inefficient Inequality

The Economic Costs of Gender Inequality in Europe

09.00 - 9.20 Registration and Coffee

09.20 - 9.30 Welcome and Introduction

- Brigitte Preissl (Intereconomics Editor-in-Chief)
-

09.30 - 11.00 Session I

Chair: Derek Kruse, Intereconomics

- Joana Pereira (International Monetary Fund): Unlocking female employment potential in Europe: drivers and benefits
 - Anna Minasyan (University of Göttingen): The impact of gender gaps on growth in developing countries: implications for Europe
 - Martina Bisello (Eurofound): The gender employment gap: challenges and solutions
-

11.00 - 11.30 Coffee Break

11.30 - 13.00 Session II

Chair: Cian Mulligan, Intereconomics

- Diane Perrons (LSE): Gender and inequality: austerity and alternatives
 - Virginija Langbakk (European Institute of Gender Equality): A study on the economic benefits of gender equality
 - Paola Profeta (University of Bocconi): Gender equality in decision-making positions: the efficiency gains
-

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch Break

14.00 - 15.15 Panel Session –
The Economic Costs of Gender Inequality

Chair: Kerstin Born-Sirke, CEPS

- Virginija Langbakk (European Institute of Gender Equality)
 - Diane Perrons (London School of Economics and Political Science)
 - Brigitte Preissl (Intereconomics)
 - Joana Pereira (International Monetary Fund)
 - Loretta Anania (European Commission)
-

15.15 - 16.00 Coffee and Networking

Thursday, 3 November 2016, 9.00 - 16.00

CEPS Conference Room. 1, Place du Congrès, 1000 Brussels

For further information, please visit: www.intereconomics.eu